

I was appalled at the ABC pregame skit involving Terrel Owens of the Philadelphia Eagles and Nicolette Sheridan of the TV Show Desperate Housewives.

Your agency took a very aggressive stand after the Janet Jackson Super Bowl incident and to me this was a much more flagrant violation of what is acceptable on our airwaves.

Many young children who are sports fans, plead with their parents to watch the Monday Night Game, and millions of parents such as myself were left to explain or make sense of the network's desperate promotion.

I would hope that your commitment to cleaning up our airwaves are pure and that you will take a long hard look at this situation and deal with the network in a matter that is fair and consistent with others you have chosen to pursue and censor.
